上周五你校组织学生去自然灾害体验馆参加了一次活动,让学生在虚拟现实(VR)环境中体验自然灾害。请你为校报写一篇英文新闻稿,内容包括:

1. 活动目的;
2. 活动过程;
3. 活动反响。

参考词汇: (Natural Disaster Experience Hall)

注意: 词数应为80左右。

Version 1

Last Friday, our school organized all students to visit the Natural Disaster Experience Hall.

This activity was designed to improve students' awareness of natural disasters and teach them practical self-rescue skills. We wore VR headsets and experienced earthquakes and floods in virtual scenes. Guides also showed us correct ways to escape danger quickly.

All students spoke highly of this trip. They said they learned valuable knowledge and would take disaster prevention more seriously.

Version 2

Our school held an outing to the Natural Disaster Experience Hall last Friday.

The main goal was to help students understand the danger of natural disasters and master survival methods. We experienced typhoons and mudslides by VR technology, and listened to professional safety advice carefully.

Every student was deeply touched. They thought the activity was much more vivid and useful than ordinary classroom lessons.

Version 3

Last Friday, students in our school took part in an activity at the Natural Disaster Experience Hall.

It aimed to make students know more about natural disasters and learn how to protect themselves in emergencies. With the help of VR equipment, we felt the great power of natural disasters and practiced escape steps.

Most students said they benefited greatly. They realized that disaster prevention knowledge was really necessary for everyone.

Version 4

Our school arranged a special visit to the Natural Disaster Experience Hall last Friday.

We attended the activity to learn about natural disasters and improve our ability to deal with sudden risks. We experienced storms and earthquakes in the VR environment, and teachers told us many useful safety rules.

All participants considered the trip unforgettable. They hoped the school would organize more such practical activities.
